

...october 2, 1985...

what have we learned
oh children of the sun?
what truths have twisted
and untwisted in the spin of hours spent preparing for hours that did not come?

where have we believed oh daughters of the dream?
what impulses drew us
like eyes towards a moon
searching out illusions until illusions changed?

what have we gained
oh sons of mountain time?
climbing mornings to escape the battles of the wind till evenings found us sleeping at the centre of the storm?

what have we learned
oh children of the sun?
growing out of oceans
into the rocks and sands until the tidal call of waves pulled us back again?
