

...july 8, 1986...

there are ten thousand questions that i have not asked and may not ever find the words to properly express –

ten thousand questions
splitting an atomic sky stunning the brain
in wireless activity –

like mushroom thoughts
preparing to erupt
night abysses –

i hover on the brink of fireworks waiting for ten thousand questions to explode my inner consciousness.
