

...may 15, 1991...

*no moon tonight –
no false shadow sky –
the goddess waits
inside infinity –*

*some call the goddess new
those who do not know
she sang when time began before the moon was real –*

*be real to me now
moon i cannot see –
be real to me now
goddess of no sky –*

*let the strength
of the invisible
ride silver through my being
until my blood
can sing you back to power.*
