

...december 30, 1991...

pull me in – pull me in –
spinning mists of dusk and dawn – world ending – world begun –
pull me in – pull me in –

the all – the all –
the everything –
the all – the all –
the everything –

absorbing me into a mist of visions woven to forget – spiralling and thickening
i dive into what is not yet.
