

...may 19, 1991...

tomorrow i will be in greece painting blue athenas against a purple sky
and laughing ice cream into golden seas -

tomorrow i will be in spain racing wild and free between sand and salt waves where ruined turrets climb into another century -

tomorrow i will be in egypt scaling tombs and pyramids awakening and laying gods to rest searching scarabs under cloudless skies - tomorrow - yes tomorrow i will be far beyond this creeping cold - flying beyond clouds into the skies of countries that have yet to know my name.
