...july 4, 1993...

*burning – slowly burning candle white
and candle wise*

*i watch
the disappearing
of half-forgotten eyes –*

*i watch the sunlight
fall away
beyond forbidden days –*

*burning – slowly burning –
candle slow
and candle wise*

*i am the flame
emerging
through vestiges of change –*

*i am the moon
in fullness –
waxing to the strange –*

*burning – slowly burning candle old
and candle wise*

*i am
the emerging
of unexpected dreams –*

*i am
the goddess rising
though dawns i've yet to be.*
