

...february 21, 1993...

we met in oldham's market place like strangers who are friends talking about places past – and places yet to come – you have been to portugal and india and france -

i have been to canada
to saudi and to greece –

you spoke of towns and countrysides that i have never seen – and places you are dreaming of someday visiting -

soon – you'll be in canada –
and i –in portugal –
each of us exploring where the other has not been –

maybe – in another place – inside another dream –
we'll meet again as stranger friends somewhere in turkistan.
