

...october 30, 1994...

i stare at feet that are not mine in shoes almost invisible moving as if someone else controlled my destiny –

i watch through eyes that are not mine to see what no one else can see until the house that knows my name collapses into emptiness – i climb through ruins of a past where no one knows my face or hand until a family that i lost spirals back into my dream.
