

A photograph of a squirrel with grey and orange fur sitting on a tree stump. The squirrel is looking towards the camera. The background is a blurred green forest.

...august 27, 2007...

i'm growing younger every day breathing in geraniums - diving into trees and leaves and swimming dandelion grass - call me merlin - watch me change erasing years of history to reveal - at last - the child that i once forgot to be.
