

(tara & kelly ~ august 27, 2011)

the august month that summer rules – the rabbit year of golden moons –
the magic of the seven twice twining earth and universe –

a time –
a time of blackberries
and thistle seed and ancient trees –
a time –
a time of memories
where all that is begins again –

where every day – forever new celebrates the magical – pivoting out of the now
from which the future past unrolls.
