

...december 3, 2011...

wall the pictures
side by each –
black on white
rectangle wide –
strobe the light
of neon winds
in hummingbirds
with puppet strings –

fire the corner
oven warm
with images
of gingerbread
and icing stars
and fairy lights
illuminating
rainbow nights –

path by gravel
crunching steps
winding forests
into myth –
till we become
the princesses
and princes ghosting
paradise.
