

...january 18, 2012...

father mother partner friend journeying through space and time born and born and born again to find each other once again – disguises that i cannot guess redefine our separateness until - within a moment's pause we overlap in inward thoughts – a thousand miles here to here train and plane and stratosphere to reconstruct and reinvent the dreams imagination spins – brother sister spouse and friend distances expand and bend while private loves thread in between the far and near we can't explain – beyond the thick of silences we split apart to recombine until all distances conjoin inside the spiral of our names.
