

...february 29, 2012...

home – in transit – travelling the stars –
first day – last day – all days singing now – now the rain – and now and now the moon –
now the snow – and now and now the sun –

vancouver – oldham – delhi – kerema – names pull me in and throw me out again – taif – kaslo – vashon – remembrances overlapping time and space and being –

all opening in crystal clarity into the separate moments that i am – alive – asleep – aware and unaware – flipping between here and there and here –

every moment me – as i create and recreate myself through memories with sun star rain and snow in pure recall multiplying each reflected now.
