

...november 22, 2012...

*magicking a shadow drive towards a black star dawn
the rocking ranges draw us deep into a grey beyond –*

*vancouver – langley – manning park
we pierce the rising sun with magic carpet travelling drifting a northeast wind –*

*a breakfast pause for gassing up then into cold and thaw
where highways wind like gravy through old potato snow –*

osoyoos – rock creek – greenwood – a grand forks lunching pause and then the floating mountains in an undulating haze –

*castlegar to nelson – mirror lake and on – to meet our kaslo father
with a century of hugs.*
