

...october 6, 2012...

we shake the once from once upon into the sudden of today and square a cornered picture frame to pose ourselves for memory – we sit – as on a mountain top while all the world falls away with all tomorrow's yesterdays inside this moment's fantasy – you and i – forever free beyond the ever spreading dream now pictured in a picture frame as easily as planning dinner.
