

....january 22, 2013...

this – my only privacy –
a moment – staring glass – watching raindrops splash the pond in circle galaxies –
sparrows – juncos – dart between cedar trees and seeds – into a panoramic window world growing through my eyes –

here – a red faced hummingbird
there – a dash of sun –
with half a floating inside thought wondering this dream –
enmeshed within realities of creatures – air – and earth –
i reflect and i refract
my multi-universe.
