we took an unexpected tour beyond the woods – beyond the hills – on jigsaw roadways branched between the rain and flashing sun –

we drove through nowhere – to return from hills to trees to home – back to beginnings – similar – yet somehow – rearranged.
