...october 30, 2014...

through my beliefs a smoky sky sweeps the clouds and sets the sun - wandering out of my eyes to draw my body in - while in my dreams the whitest sands arch on turquoise glinting seas as i create realities that bathe the future into being.
