

...july 17, 2016...

is this a moment we might see inside a time that is not yet?
pretending to be growing wiser in some ageless fantasy?

there is no time outside of now and yet each memory we choose draws us into mirror selves playing games of make-believe – will some future find us walking oceans shores of other realms fashioning new memories of re-imagined yesterdays?

perhaps there is another where and we are already there sitting a bench – envisioning this moment that we are.
