

...august 31, 2016...

mister ree and miss terree planned a wedding party with his story and her story plastering disaster –

a mist of trees enveloped ease unsettling all futures since he was he and she was she and neither was each other – but mister ree and miss terree grew upwards sideways wiser till he was she and she was he and little stork-trees mattered.
