

...december 24, 2016...

she closed the cupboard on his name then opened up a door to watch the windows burst their frames and welcome in the stars – a sun eclipsed a dozen clouds then swallowed up the room till everything from here and now became the late of soon – now she's stepping hand by breath to climb a laddered dream mirroring those everyones who wove her into being.
