

...august 12. 2016...

this is life - the quick - the fast - the flow and snap of wind and sweep - the seagull dives and honking geese the splash of beach balls on the beach - this is life - the ease and slow of shorelines shrinking sand to sea - of tree heights scraping clouds to moon - of rocks eroding new from old - of magic travelling the mind and throwing us from near to far exploding us beyond our souls and into eons of the stars.
