

...march 8, 2017...

if you're a me who's watching me and i'm a me who's watching you – while both of us are sipping coffee which of us can we call real?

when you laugh and i respond are we a single laughing one or are we harmonizing time to be the laughter we combine?

when you are laughing back to me
is it me i'm laughing at?
which one of us is the reflection that the laughter's all about?

if i say bless you when you sneeze am i blessing you or me?
or am i blessing everything that set the stage for you to sneeze?

if i'm a holographic me and you're a holographic you – there must be two of us at least – weaving worlds of belief.
