

...october 1, 2019...

*can you hear the flowers
singing rainbow songs?
can you taste the petals
breezing into leaves?*

*can you feel fragrances
whispering your skin
with mountain trees and ocean valleys gathering you in?*

*can you touch the night sky
exploding galaxies
with moons and misted nebulae forever spiralling?*

*atoms light your body
in a universe of stars
shimmering the ancientness and newness that you are –* *believe – believe in magic – oh child of beyond –

the heavens are your canvas
and you are your own god.*
