

...august 16, 2019...

i know a sudden resonance – a feeling of between as suddenly my thinking shifts
into an altered plane –

sparrows – squirrels – chickadees – eye meets eye inside a pause connecting – sharing – vanishing – with inward treasures shared –

i cherish every laughing glance with camera in hand
catching photographic hints of consciousness exchanged –

intelligence in otherness – an awesomeness within – each telepathic interchange whispering – all is god.
