

...july 20, 2019...

let's catch a ride to nowhere – you can take the lead searching for some dream we lost between the shore and seas –

we'll drive into forever pretending we're alone
when weaving mountain highways to beaches white as bone –

every winding corner and every bridge we cross will sweep us over crevasses of river trees and rocks –

we'll think that we are travellers exploring diverse scenes when truly – we're the artists crafting our outward realms.
