

...may 21, 2019...

thank you for this dinner out - it's like we're dating once again after a dozen years pretending that we never had the time - thank you for the conversations we always forget to have until a special restaurant meal links us back to sharing selves - so nice to have this evening out - a bit like dancing in the sun after a married decade chasing in between our shadows selves.
