

...july 17, 2019...

today we packed our suitcases to drive an island of escape exalted by imaginings of places we have yet to see – the fridge is emptied – wallets stuffed with cash and credit cards and such – the place is dusted – floors are swept – rubbish dumped and bookings checked –

plants are watered – windows closed – bagels purchased – counters cleaned – erratically preparing for half-a-dozen might-have-beens –

plus notes in-case-of-absence left – as if – in our adventuring we'll somehow slip beyond the now and into worlds unexplained.
