“what am i trying to see” she asked “what am trying to see?
the streets are green and the skies are blue so what am i trying to see?”

“what am i trying to be” she asked
“and what am trying to be?
doing what everyone else expects not caring enough for me?”

“and if my world’s reflecting me
In all and everything that I see – maybe it’s time to change myself to be who i want to be –“ “perhaps if everyone did the same we’d all be an awesome crew finally loving the lives we lead instead of complaining to absent gods.”
