

...october 11, 2020...

exciting – so exciting to skew the ups and downs – switching all perspectives into a dance of clowns –

watch the clown face crying with tears to match the frown then swap it from the down side up to laughing empathy –

for who can love another who cannot love the self?
and who can understand the dark
who has not found the light?

all is a wondrous bundle with each multitudinous self discovering that the greatest art is laughing with oneself.
