

...july 11, 2020...

it is enough that we are both siblings of a once upon – sister – brother – partner – friends travelling roads dissimilar –

you on your path – me on mine – somehow separate yet combined we meet like lifetime visitors then separate to disparate worlds –

both of us are magnets collecting friends – like echoes of our soul – gradually combining fragments into a collective whole.
