

...july 2, 2020...

once upon a time that was tomorrow and once upon a time that time forgot it was twice upon a time in fairy tales spinning yarns through times that are not yet –

*we are the trolls and elves and leprechauns and fairy folk that mushrooms hide from sight –
we are goblins – unicorns and genies we are the beacons guiding us to light –*

we are the ever after and the ogres twisting enchantments into starry nights – we are princesses and princes – kings and queens – sorcerers and knights on dragon flights –

we unravel spells that weave the moment and manifest the stories of the heart.
