

...december 31, 2020...

the moment late – between two years – between two breaths of open eyes – an ecstatic now unveils a me that never was before –

a quiet me – examining values and philosophies reflecting me back into me and out to everything i see –

*am i real or just a dream that i have yet to understand?
or am i more than i believe creating everything i dream?*
