

...june 5, 2020...

think a thought – or maybe not – let the moment flow instead – love is what the heart directs not the chatter of the head –

dream a dream of images that words can never replicate – let love entwine the feeling tone where words divide and separate –

being fully in the now opens doors to ecstasy – release control – go with the flow and welcome in synchronicity.
