i look into forever as forever wakens new watching this young millennium unwrap a deeper now –

salt breezes whisper as oceans ripple calm with geese and herons flying above the seaweed sands – the sylphs are dancing white-tops with fairies flickering reborn powers through the mists of myth and mystic dreams we are the world dawning we are the rainbow sky we are heart-magic birthing this new reality.
