if you are me and i am you then why am i reacting now thinking it is you not me disturbing my mentality?

if i am you and you are me then every time i criticize anything – it's always me that is reflected back to me –

hilarious and wonderful to watch you reflecting me while wondering what parts of me that i'm reflecting back to you – everything is so-aligned that when the inner self reacts i am the source of my response to each and every circumstance.
