the budding buds –
the leafing leaves –
the wood ducks ducking
between geese –

the quacks and caws
and chirps and squawks
that vibrate into
breezing walks –

the all of every
single thing
is smiling
the new of spring.
