

...march 15, 2021...

we'll meet among the cedars
and fir and maple trees with branches arching portals beyond green realities –

there we'll laugh the wonderment of birds in glorious song drawing in the sunshine until rainbows dance the hand – we'll meet among the dancing leaves and bees and butterflies – beyond the lies of history and man's stupidities.
