

...march 4, 2021...

we are so much more than hair and hands and skin and ears and teeth – practising our mirrored smiles – pretending to be small – inside of each of us there is a child bathed in spirit light and dreaming stars –

we are so much more than kneeling servants slogging nine to five and eight to four bowing to media and governments controlled by bureaucrats and dollar bills –

we are so much more – nothing can crush the spirit of our soul when finally we give up victimhood to soar the skies awakening that truth inside ourselves – awakening the heart of the divine.

©pamela swanson
www.poetpam.com

