

...june 10, 2021...

we listen to the weirdest news boasting worlds far away that talks of no one that we know as if to make us cower in fear – they do not know our life or friends – they do not know the world we live with sparrows – squirrels – trees and flowers surrounding us with love – their story sounds like yesterday while ours is here and now that media from somewhere is trying to control –

we are the allowers
of each story we let in –
only by being victims
can control rewrite our names –

we are the allowers
of each story we let in –
only by sending prayers of love can peace truly begin.
