that satan anagram
of devilish enigmas
and opposite paradigms –

a chimney-diving elf dressed in red and puffing smoke while flying antlered reindeer into a night of christmas work –

if we want a paradox inside the colour red –

that teaches us to love –

who created santa
and who created satan?
are they kindred opposites
or archetypal twins?
