writing evil backwards reveals its partner – love – for evil is no less – no more – than poverty in love –

it's time – at last – to drop the past and turn ourselves around – and use it as a springboard to waken selves within –

time – at last – to cherish what we have all be-come – as sisters-brothers – gaia's soul is wakening to the stars.
