

...december 29, 2022...

if every now is now
and every now exists
somewhere in forever
then we're always together –

we're holding hands and laughing walking autumn trails and dancing midnight discos to watch a rising sun –

if every now is now
it means our memories of everything we've shared is part of who we are –

if every now is now
i'll share this now with you – closing my eyes to find us sitting side by side.
