

...august 31, 2022...

phantom moths are fluttering among the cedar trees dancing through the blackberries and playing maple leaves –

they ghost the shadow corners and sparkle in the sun – then sleep the bark of douglas firs like fairies coming home.

©pamela swanson
www.poetpam.com

