prism planet waking
let the spectrum flow – orange red green and yellow – blue violet indigo –

prism planet waking –
mind-walls crumbling
as winds of truth mingle with the sprouts and buds of spring –

some have joined with choirs singing time undone
while savants – wizards – healers draw lifeforce from the sun –

prism planet wakening erupting ancient chains – as rains pre-shadow rainbows birthing a golden age.
