

...april 19, 2022...

we went out to dinner tonight for the first time in almost a year – the waiter was charming and joyous the atmosphere wonderfully droll –

tonight we went out to dinner enjoying the magic of all – praying that that love will continue to gentle the tides of fear –

strange how governments rule by promoting restrictions and fears to divide and separate people with passports and prisons and rules –

by linking to love in our world
we all regain our power –
when people stand heart to heart governments cannot control.
