

...august 1, 2025...

a pink light weaves through everything until it finds the red surfacing an energy in heightened challenges – then the tipping into orange that spreads a sunrise sky slipping to the yellow of dandelion joy –

the greening of the summer days and oceans tipping blue seep themselves through sunsets wrapped in purple-indigo – we are the spark inciting these rainbows of disguise reflecting new realities through our inner eyes.
