

...november 26, 2025...

anonymous – i sometimes think i am anonymous –
until find that when i'm happy i see happiness around –

happiness in squirrels and trees and people's smiles
whether it is cold or warm or pouring down with rain –

yet when i'm moody or upset my world reflect the same – which shows i'm not anonymous because it really means

i am the world inside out –
and outside in – my world is reflecting me to me
both out and back again.
