*today i play with numbers and numerology
adding month and day and year resulting in thirteen –*

*thirteen in the tarot cards prophesizes change –
a skeleton that scythes the ground till winter becomes spring –*

today the sun is shining with each breath born anew creating perfect moments that have never been before – with countless thirteen's happening and countless yet to be i'll spiral through this perfect now that wakes my inner being.
